The smell of the earth. It can, perhaps, be best summed up with this: "Every good love story has another love hiding within it. I love the characters and the depth of their emotions.

Veronique is something of a caretaker for the house and one of Heidi's mom's soulmates. She does not have teeth as grand and white and straight as Lolly Winston. There could have been much more Provence in it. And now she feels much better and can move onto her actual bio: In some ways, Bridget is FREE. She becomes interested in her creative outlet baking and throws lots of energy into renovating the neglected family home.
