Why on earth would a church that small need to meet that often? Furthermore it is this same Spirit, who through his power and through the intimate bond between the members, produces and urges love among the faithful.

The sacrament of Holy Orders—which hands on their office of teaching, sanctifying, and governing the church. It only costs a couple of bucks but it will help to build any church because there will be new converts. When I was in seminary, we were taught that, when your congregation reached it was time to split into 2 churches to better serve the community. New Church adherents believe that the free will to choose between good and evil originates from one's spiritual equilibrium between heaven and hell.

Also, in the building up of Christ's body there is a diversity of members and functions. If the needs of cities and rural areas are to be met, lay people should not limit their cooperation to the parochial or diocesan boundaries but strive to extend it to interparochial, interdiocesan, national and international fields, the more so because the daily increase in population mobility, the growth of mutual bonds, and the ease of communication no longer allow any sector of society to remain closed in upon.
