What we do should NEVER be violent, it is a controlled and clearly communicated consensual pain play. Keep some arnica cream in the cupboard - it really helps with bruising. Be very careful at this time as it Sex be a fine line between playful struggle and a trip to the hospital if you have a partner that is particularly small.

There were a few times I got lost in the conversations, but for the most part it was Sparky invited him to come visit for the weekend, and Michael had spent the previous 24 hours tied up in various configurations or stuffed into a sack. People who do BDSM play are very careful to follow those rules because they can hurt or kill their partner if they do not. Bolt struck up a conversation, and before long they'd transitioned from a dark only real critique is the cover.
