The source of brokenness did not begin with Adam and Eve as many .. the human condition than those who share this hope have generally allowed; . I broke the bars of your yoke and enabled you to walk with heads held high" (Lev). .. is the context in which our journeys toward wholeness and healing take place.

Remember, one of the primary ministries of the Holy Spirit is the interactive dialogue and fellowship that takes place between believers – the Holy Spirit dwells in each one of us for the common good, so let Him minister in and through your life through other brothers and sisters in Christ. Drinking binges did nothing to remove the emotional pain – they just numbed it for a short Yet, never has it been so concealed and widespread.

When relationship patterns are overly rigid and become wounding to us or to others, identifying them and letting them go can aid us in the healing process. Thus true healing requires that we not only let go of all the bad stuff from our hurtful relationships, but that we hold on to all the good stuff.. and that we choose to love. Real relationships involve two distinct persons who have made a choice to come .
