Most of the people in town were terrified when they woke after a night of deep snowfall to see the prints of hooves marked in pairs all over the town... What frightened me more was the shadow of frostbite on my feet and that the hoof marks led right up to my open bedroom window. One night I had walked three to four miles away from home when it suddenly hit me. BooksbyAllisonSciulla.LuckilyIwasunobserved. Tis the season for ghosts and ghouls, monsters and zombies, things that go bump in the night. I was at the mall with my boyfriend and had to poop but couldn't go. Seeing that I was essentially catatonic at this point, my brother, God bless him, decided to end it once and for all and ripped the tick off my balls - like ripping off a band-aid - and probably saving me from a lifetime of Lyme Disease.
