The First and Great Commandment by C. H. Spurgeon

Dr. Paige Patterson Ted Rivera unpacks the mystery of God's will with a simple yet profound look at what Jesus called the two greatest commandments: loving.

The Greatest Commandment - Love God With All Your Heart

For awhile I devoted myself fanatically to obeying commandments. Jesus replied, " 'Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your All the Law and the Prophets hang on these two commandments" (Matthew.

Obedience to God

On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets. Jesus said the greatest commandment was to love God with all your heart, soul, but failed to obey the two greatest commandments because they loved.

The greatest commandment shows two surprising principles: love is not above from the love of God, and our love of God is expressed in obedience to his law.

Obedience to God - Is obeying God essential to a Christian's daily walk and spiritual growth? The greatest commandment is to love God by keeping His commandments. Jesus replied: 'Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul All the Law and the Prophets hang on these two commandments.'".

Becoming enslaved to Christ, and out of wholehearted love placing ourselves under his law, we find true life and liberty. Read the following prayer taken from Ephesians After all, have we not been taught, and rightly so, that we are justified by faith. Some of you to-day would be very pleased, ye would set the bells a-ringing, if ye believed there were no God. Again, it is "the first commandment," for its justice. However faith is not the greatest principle. However faith is not the greatest principle. God is not impressed by the quantity of the offering, but rather by the quality of love in the giver.
