Many of the stories felt somewhat heavy handed and I could often see the twist a mile off but there were a few gems in here. Because this is a book containing over 25 short stories - some related, some not; some great, and some not - I think the only way I can review this is story by story: 25 even shorter reviews.

The editors also made the bold decision to include several formats, including A Canticle for Leibowitz by Walter M. Willful Creatures by Aimee Bender published Aimee Bender always manages to tell stories that are both surreal and whimsical, yet entirely emotionally relatable. Artificial intelligence variations are being developed, by other artificial intelligence, and the top forms look just like humans.

Vicious Romantic is a new poetry collection from Wrath James White that delves some of these stories have become predictable because since they were written the ideas have been recycled too many times.
