In large measure, the situation as yet was little changed. Is the target of their hostility the army, the farmers-general, the king, the institution of monarchy itself? Nevertheless, if inevitably he was an outsider, he was also a deeply informed and committed observer, looking for fresh signs and portents. His illusion to the persistence of the knightly state of mind in the nineteenth century. Urbanization acted as a catalyst—life in the city undermined social restraints, placing a greater part of existence outside traditional groups; ultimately, the community could classify its members solely on the basis of residence. The impoverished daimyo could no longer support the samurai, who began to break away from their class. Catherine extended serfdom to the Ukraine and distributed among her favourites untold numbers of peasants taken from the imperial domain and from secularized Church lands. Dewan, J. En route!
